

Camera-Ready Submission Notice

Dear Authors,

We are pleased to inform you that the Final File Upload Section for accepted papers is now open.

Please complete all required steps carefully according to the provided guidelines.

A summary of the key instructions is given below:

1. Papers Accepted with Major Revisions:

Addressing Reviewer Comments: Authors must thoroughly revise their manuscripts according to the reviewers' feedback and format the document strictly following the conference guidelines.

Submission Section: Please submit your revised manuscript through the system under "My Papers" → "Edit Paper".

Final Step: Proceed with Step 7 only after the Paper Final Version opens (effective 2026-11-01). All required materials must be fully submitted by the Camera-Ready Deadline.

2. Final Review

The final version of each paper will be re-evaluated.

If required revisions are not properly implemented or any unacceptable modifications are detected, the paper will be removed from the list of accepted papers, and the responsibility will rest with the authors.

3. Video Presentation Requirement

Authors must prepare a video presentation of their paper, which will be displayed during the conference.

After the video, the authors should be available online for a Q&A session.

Please note:

- Papers without a submitted video will not be published in the conference proceedings.
 - Such papers will not be indexed, and no certificate will be issued. Session links will be provided on the Conference Schedule page.

4. Registration and Payment

For each accepted paper, registration must be completed through the electronic payment system by the Camera-Ready Deadline.

A conference participation card will be issued to the individual who completes the payment. Therefore, the presenting author must complete this process.

5. Strict Deadline Policy

Due to conference scheduling, the Camera-Ready Deadline for both final submission and payment will not be extended.

Failure to meet any of these requirements by the Camera-Ready Deadline will result in paper removal from the accepted list.

Authors are encouraged to submit early to allow sufficient time for feedback and issue resolution.

6. Presentation File (PPTX)

Authors must also prepare their presentation file in PPTX format and upload it along with the final paper file.

The maximum presentation time is 10 minutes.

7. Additional Required Steps

In addition to the above, all authors of accepted papers after the Paper Final Version opens must also complete the following three important steps by the Camera-Ready Deadline:

1. IEEE eCopyright (ECF) Signature – Log in to the IEEE eCopyright system, verify your information, agree to the policies, and type your name to electronically sign the copyright transfer.

2. IEEE PDF eXpress Validation – Validate your final paper using the IEEE PDF eXpress tool (Conference ID: 73900X) to ensure it meets IEEE publication standards.
3. IEEE Copyright Notice and Headers/Footers – Do NOT include the IEEE copyright notice at the bottom left corner of the first page or any running headers/footers across any pages. Submit a clean manuscript; the official copyright line and running headers will be applied centrally during final publication and indexing.

Detailed step-by-step instructions for each of these three processes are provided in the following files below: “IEEE PDF eXpress Guideline” and “IEEE eCopyright (ECF) Guideline.”

IEEE PDF eXpress Guideline

Authors of accepted English papers must complete the following steps carefully:

Step 1: Add the IEEE Copyright Notice

Do NOT include the IEEE copyright notice (e.g., XXX-X-XXXX-XXXX-X/26/$31.00 ©2026 IEEE) at the bottom left corner of the first page.

Please submit a clean manuscript; the official copyright line and running headers will be applied centrally during final publication and indexing.

Step 2: Checking for Mandates

IEEE understands that certain authors may have specific requirements that must be satisfied to remain eligible for funding. To assist you in meeting these requirements, please indicate below if your paper has been funded in part by an organization that mandates deposit of a version of the article in an institutional repository.

If your work has been funded by an organization on the list below or if you are a student or staff at a UK-based university, please select the corresponding choice. You will then receive additional instructions on the steps needed to fulfill your requirements after the agreement is signed. If you are not affiliated with any of the organizations below, or you are not a UK University student/staff, please select "Not affiliated with any group on this list".

What are Posting Mandates?

Certain affiliations may require that authors make their peer-reviewed publications publicly available by depositing a pre-print version of the work within a sanctioned repository.

IEEE has partnered with a selection of affiliates to assist with the process by providing authors instructions based on their specific mandate.

UK university staff and students that have unspecified funding and are required to adhere to posting mandates should select the "UK University Staff/Student (unspecified funder)"

An author's copyright status is determined to a large extent by the type of employer for whom the author works. For example, if you are employed by the U.S. Government, and you are the sole author of your paper, then you should select "Employed by United States Government."

Similarly, if you are the sole author and you are employed by a Crown Government (or if you and all your coauthors are Crown Government employees), then copyright to your paper will remain with the Crown Government. You should select "Employed by a Crown Government."
